Seigfreid Bingham's Business Litigation service group specializes in resolving disputes that arise in the context of commercial and business operations, encompassing a wide range of legal conflicts, including breach of contract, partnership disputes, shareholder disagreements, employment issues, intellectual property disputes, fraud claims, and regulatory compliance matters.

Our attorneys represent businesses ranging from small enterprises to large corporations in negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, and court proceedings. We understand the legal needs and complexities of our clients and are committed to effectively safeguarding their interests, minimizing risks, and securing favorable outcomes, whether through negotiation or litigation.

Our litigators help businesses navigate complex legal challenges through effective problem-solving, tailored legal planning, and evidence gathering. They possess strong communication and negotiation skills, frequently interacting with opposing counsel, judges, and clients. Additionally, they may provide preventative advice to help businesses avoid potential disputes by crafting robust contracts and ensuring regulatory compliance.
