

Equipment Dealer Litigation

Seigfreid Bingham's Equipment Dealer Litigation practice group delivers targeted legal counsel to farm equipment and machinery dealers, addressing the distinct challenges of this specialized sector. Our attorneys represent equipment dealers of all sizes in a wide variety of legal matters, including contract disputes, warranty claims, product liability, financing and leasing issues, employment concerns, franchise and dealership law, and regulatory compliance.

We regularly assist clients in negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, and litigation, as well as in navigating relationships with manufacturers, lenders, and customers. Our team understands the operational and legal complexities of running an equipment dealership and is committed to protecting our clients' businesses while securing favorable outcomes in disputes.

In addition to resolving conflicts, our attorneys provide proactive advice to help dealers avoid future legal issues. We counsel on contracts, business operations, and compliance strategies tailored to the agricultural equipment industry. With deep knowledge of dealership law and the agricultural sector, we serve as trusted advisors to help clients thrive in a competitive and regulated environment.
