Mackenzie M. Clark

Associate

Kenzie Clark joined the firm in 2024 as an Associate in the litigation practice group. Her practice encompasses general litigation, employment law, worker's compensation, and construction law.

Kenzie enjoys working on complex legal matters and problem-solving. She uses a collaborative approach to find creative and practical solutions for clients.

Kenzie received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Kansas School of Law in 2024, where she served as a member of the Moot Court Council and National Moot Court Team. Before law school, Kenzie worked in California as a legal assistant/apprentice in employment and labor law.

Outside the office, Kenzie enjoys traveling, reading, rock climbing, and spending time with family and friends.
