

Timothy J. Fisher

Of Counsel

Tim Fisher has over 25 years of experience serving as outside general counsel for privately held companies. He has provided assistance to businesses in various industries including manufacturing, sales and service, sports and entertainment, and transportation. Unlike other Kansas City attorneys, Tim can handle almost everything that comes his way. And when he doesn't know the answer, he can quickly connect his clients with the right person at Seigfreid Bingham or elsewhere to answer their question and move their business forward.

A strong background in tax, and a dedication to privately-held companies.

Tim worked as a tax specialist with KPMG before attending law school, which allows him to identify and spot tax issues that other corporate lawyers without real-world tax experience might miss. He enjoys working for privately held companies and values being responsive to their needs. He knows the fast pace of business and keeps his clients up-to-date on where he's at and what he's working on so they're never left in the dark.

An asset for high-net-worth individuals.

Tim also serves many high-net-worth individuals. He provides advice on insurance coverage, taxes, and generally helping them plan ahead and make smarter decisions. Tim also helps a lot of high-net-worth individuals by overseeing their investment and financial advisors. In these roles, he often becomes an extension of his clients' inner circle, serving as a sounding board for advice and a voice of reason.
