Chris Tillery Appointed President–Elect of KCMBA's Civil Litigation Section

Seigfreid Bingham attorney Chris Tillery was recently appointed President-Elect of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association (KCMBA) Civil Litigation Section Board of Directors for 2025.

The KCMBA Civil Litigation Section "oversees a group of individual committees comprised of attorneys who specialize in one or more areas of civil litigation," providing the group with networking and educational opportunities, promoting professional development and justice, and enhancing relationships in the legal community, among others.

In addition to this leadership role, Chris serves on the Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Advisory Committee. He was also the former Business Litigation Committee Chair and Secretary/Treasurer of the Civil Litigation Section.
