Curry Sexton joins Seigfreid Bingham

Kansas City – Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to welcome Curry Sexton to the firm as a Litigation Associate. Sexton joined the firm in 2017 as a Summer Associate.

Sexton is a 2018 graduate of Washburn University School of Law and a 2014 graduate of Kansas State University, where he studied Business Marketing and Management and played football as a student athlete. Originially from Abilene, Kan., he is excited to begin his legal practice in Kansas City, focusing on Construction, Employment, Sports & Entertainment, and Transportation Law.

Read more about Sexton and his practice here.