Dan McClain Elected to Board of Directors of the Heart of America Shakespeare Festival

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to announce that Dan McClain has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Heart of America Shakespeare Festival (HASF).

In this leadership role, Dan will help guide the organization as it continues its mission to bring high?quality, professional Shakespeare productions and educational programming to the Kansas City community.

Founded in 1994, the HASF transforms a Kansas City Park into an outdoor theatre each summer, offering free performances that draw more than 30,000 attendees annually. The HASF also offers youth camps and educational programs focused on Shakespeare's works, theatre skills, and stagecraft.

The HASF is a cornerstone of Kansas City's arts community, committed to accessibility, cultural enrichment, and community engagement—values that align closely with our firm's longstanding support of local nonprofit initiatives.

To learn more, please click here.