Downtown Council of Kansas City Recognizes Seigfreid Bingham

At the Kansas City Downtown Council's quarterly Business Retention and Attraction Reception held on August 28, 2014, Seigfreid Bingham was recognized by the Business Retention Committee of the Downtown Council for its dedication and commitment to Downtown in connection with its decision to remain in downtown Kansas City and relocate its offices to 2323 Grand. Steve Kyle attended the reception and accepted a resolution on behalf of the firm which was presented by Kansas City Councilwoman Jan Marcason, and Jerry Riffel, Chair of the Downtown Council board of directors. Also pictured are City Manager Troy Schulte, Pete Fullerton, President and CEO of the Kansas Economic Development Corporation, Bill Dietrich, President and CEO of the Downtown Council, and Kansas City Councilman Jim Glover.