Emily Crane Accepted as a Member of CREW KC

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to share that Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) KC recently welcomed attorney Emily Crane as a new member. She was appointed to leadership roles on the Programs Committee and Communications Committee.

CREW KC is a business development organization for women in the Kansas City commercial real estate field. It is affiliated globally and provides a space for education, networking, leadership, and civic/philanthropic involvement.

Attorney Heather Jones is also an active member of CREW KC, having held leadership roles on the Board of Directors and the Sponsorship Committee (Chair).
