John Peryam Joins Seigfreid Bingham

Seigfreid, Bingham, Levy, Selzer & Gee, P.C. is pleased to announce that John Peryam has joined the firm. Peryam will practice as Of Counsel in the Corporate and Real Estate groups. Peryam most recently served as an Associate at another firm in Kansas City where he represented clients in a broad range of issues including entity and joint venture formation, financing, mergers & acquisitions, capital acquisition, employment matters, commercial leasing, and real estate acquisition and sales. Peryam has also worked in the institutional investment arena for Boston-based Standish Mellon Asset Management. He currently serves as a Deacon of his church and on the Board of Directors for Impact KC, a non-profit organization comprised of local professionals focused on maximizing the positive impact of charitable giving on theKansas City community. Peryam received his J.D. from the University of Kansas, where he was Order of the Coif, a member of the Kansas Law Review and recipient of the Paul Wilson Advocacy Award. Peryam received his B.A. in Economics and English Composition from DePauw University.