John Vering Invited to Join the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to announce that attorney John Vering has been inducted into the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals (NADN), recognized by the Missouri Chapter for arbitration.

The NADN is a professional association for alternative dispute resolution (ADR) attorneys. Membership is by invitation only, based on hands-on experience in civil and commercial conflict resolution. Members are selected through a rigorous process by their peers and local litigators and are amongst the most in-demand neutrals in their respective states.

“We’re delighted to recognize John Vering to the Academy’s Missouri Chapter in recognition of Excellence in his arbitration and alternative dispute resolution practice,” Darren Lee, Executive Director of NADN, said.

John is a senior member of the firm’s Employment Law group, focusing his practice on arbitrations, mediation, and representing clients in a broad range of employment and labor matters.

As an experienced trial lawyer, arbitrator, and mediator, John has earned recognition for his legal career, including receiving the Dean of the Trail Bar award from the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association and inclusion on the Best Lawyers in America and Super Lawyers labor and employment lists. He is also a current Fellow of the College of Labor and Employment Lawyers.
