Johnson receives AWL President’s Award

Kansas City, Mo. – Shannon Cohorst Johnson, shareholder, received the President’s Award at the Association for Women Lawyers of Greater Kansas City annual holiday gathering on December, 2, 2016. She received the award for her contributions to the board as Fundraising Chair. The AWL raised more money in 2016 than any other year in history, to be used for scholarships and other ways to promote women in the legal profession and help women in the community.
