Julie Parisi, Fritz Riesmeyer, and Cody Weyhofen Obtain Favorable Outcome in Federal Court

Seigfreid Bingham attorneys Julie Parisi, Fritz Riesmeyer, and Cody Weyhofen worked on behalf of a management-consultant client to obtain a favorable result after a preliminary injunction hearing at the United States District Court for the District of Kansas.

The team is representing the client in a $4 million lawsuit related to a breach of contract claim and recently defeated a Motion for Preliminary Injunction filed against the client. After a three-and-a-half-hour hearing with multiple witnesses, the Court denied the Motion for Preliminary Injunction in full.

Julie, Fritz, and Cody are attorneys in the firm's Litigation practice group and strategically handle matters efficiently and cost-efficiently and work to maximize the possibility of successful early resolution. They focus their practices on a wide variety of industries, including equipment dealers, transportation, real estate, and construction.

To learn more, please click here.