Julie Parisi Publishes Article on a Supreme Court Opinion in Kansas Bar Journal?

Seigfreid Bingham attorney Julie Parisi recently authored an article in the Kansas Bar Journal, a publication of the Kansas Bar Association.

In the article, “The High Court Leaves Open the Federal Government’s Right to Limit Disinformation on Social Media,” Julie covers Murthy v. Missouri, providing a deep dive into the case and how the Court views the federal government’s ability to control social media content.

At Seigfreid Bingham, Julie focuses her practice on litigation in many areas, including class action defense, employment, construction, transportation, and creditor rights. When litigation arises, she looks for creative ideas for possible resolution, while being calm and strategic, often approaching litigation as a collaborative process with her clients.
