René Calabrese Honored with MLM Women's Justice Award

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to announce René Calabrese has been recognized with a 2025 Women's Justice Award by Missouri Lawyers Media (MLM).

This honor celebrates women in the legal profession who have demonstrated leadership, commitment to justice, and have made significant contributions to their field and communities. René is recognized in the corporate category, consisting of women corporate attorneys.

René's commitment to her practice, extensive experience, and dedication to her clients have earned her recognition from media outlets as a leader in the legal industry. Her practice focuses on real estate and corporate law, where she is passionate about continuous learning, problem-solving, helping people, finding innovative and workable solutions, and seeing real results. She strives to be extremely responsive and makes a point to educate her clients so they can make informed decisions about their business dealings in a timely manner.

To learn more, please click here.