René Calabrese Invited to Become a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation

Seigfreid Bingham Attorney René Calabrese was recently selected to become a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation (ABF), an invitation-only recognition limited to 1% of licensed attorneys.

ABF Fellows are made up of attorneys, judges, law faculty, and legal scholars, recognizing members for their significant contributions to the legal field. This honorary society provides opportunities for networking and research, and supporting other Fellows is at its core.

Recognized for her success in her practice, René works with clients to find innovative and workable solutions. She focuses on continuous learning, problem-solving, and responsiveness and is dedicated to her clients' needs. René helps clients in real estate, including commercial real estate transactions, 1031 exchanges, title and survey reviews, general business, and corporate matters.
