René Calabrese Joins Seigfreid Bingham, Bringing Real Estate and Corporate Experience

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to announce that René Calabrese recently joined the firm as an Of Counsel attorney in the corporate law and commercial lending practice groups.

With over 16 years of experience, René brings a unique prospective to the firm, having served for ten years as an in-house counsel in the real estate industry and as an environmental consultant. She strives to provide her clients a high level of service through an innovative, educational, and responsive approach.

René's practice focuses on the real estate and construction industry groups, where she counsels clients on commercial real estate transactions, 1031 exchanges, title and survey review, general business, and corporate matters.

To learn more about René, please click here.