Seigfreid Bingham Announces New Attorneys and Name Change

The law firm of Seigfreid Bingham, P.C., formerly known as Seigfreid, Bingham, Levy, Selzer & Gee, P.C., is pleased to welcome six new attorneys to the firm. Attorneys who recently joined the firm are: Fritz Riesmeyer, a Shareholder in the firm's Litigation Department, focuses on complex business and intellectual property litigation. He has more than 35 years of experience in trial and appellate work. Fritz graduated from the University of Missouri–Kansas City School of Law. John Peryam, Of Counsel in the firm's Corporate Department, will practice in the areas of Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions and Real Estate Law. He graduated from the University of Kansas School of Law in 2004. Shannon Johnson, an Associate in the firm's Litigation Department, graduated from the University of Kansas School of Law in 2007. Brad Thoenen, an Associate in the firm's Litigation Department, graduated from the University of Missouri School of Law in 2007. Recent law school graduates Greg Whiston, University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law, and John Fuchs, University of Virginia School of Law, will also join the firm as Associates later this month. "We are pleased to have hired both experienced and new attorneys to help serve the growing needs of our clients," said Joseph L. Hiersteiner, Managing Director. "Fritz, John, Brad and Shannon bring us tremendous experience in areas of our firm which are growing. The addition of Greg and John continues our practice of hiring outstanding recent law school graduates." "We are especially gratified that we can make the services of these new attorneys available to our growing client base. We look forward to maintaining our position of leadership in providing innovative, timely and cost-efficient legal services to our clients," Hiersteiner added. The firm recently changed its name to Seigfreid Bingham, P.C., the name by which the firm has been generally known in the legal community. The new firm web address is www.seigfreidbingham.com and all email addresses will now end in @seigfreidbingham.com. However, the existing email and website addresses will continue to work as well.