

Seigfreid Bingham assists in high profile lease negotiation

✖ Kansas City, Mo. – After much activity concerning the site of its new headquarters, a Seigfreid Bingham client will continue to call Kansas City home. As of July 19, 2016, BNIM architecture firm says its headquarters will remain in the Crossroads District of downtown Kansas City. The announcement comes after months of speculation on whether the company would move its home base after facing backlash concerning new building plans. The company will lease approximately 20,000 square feet of headquarters space at 2460 Pershing Road in Crown Center. Seigfreid Bingham attorneys Fritz Riesmeyer and Chris Stewart assisted BNIM in negotiating the five-year lease. Read more in the Kansas City Business Journal and The Kansas City Star.
