Seigfreid Bingham Attorneys Actively Involved in Kansas City Legal Association

Seigfreid Bingham attorneys Brenda Hamilton, Shannon Cohorst Johnson, Dan McClain, Curry Sexton, and Chris Tillery are actively engaged in the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association (KCMBA), serving in numerous leadership roles, as well as participating in the organization's programs and events.

The involvement by our attorneys is as follows:

- 2023 Fellows of the Bar – Brenda Hamilton and Dan McClain
- Vice Chair of Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Advisory Board Committee – Dan McClain
- Vice Chair of Sports and Entertainment Law Section Committee – Curry Sexton
- Vice Chair of CLE Committee – Curry Sexton
- Senior Member-at-Large of the Board of Directors for Civil Litigation Section – Chris Tillery

The Fellows of the Bar is the highest level of membership at the KCMBA given to members who have been in practice for at least eight years that have dedicated significant time and commitment to the association.

As Vice Chair of the Sports and Entertainment Law Section Committee and the CLE Committee, Curry co-leads the group geared toward sports and entertainment attorneys and is involved in the CLE idea generation process.

Chris represents the general interests of the Civil Litigation Section as a Senior Member-at-Large of the Board of Directors, and Dan assists the KCMBA staff in their efforts to maintain high-quality CLE as Vice Chair of the CLE Advisory Board Committee.

Additionally, Brenda Hamilton, Shannon Cohorst Johnson, and Dan McClain serve on the 2023 Board of Directors.
