
Seigfreid Bingham Celebrates Five Years of Kauffman Center Ensemble Membership

Seigfreid Bingham is proud to mark five years as a member of the Kauffman Center for the Performing Arts' Ensemble business program. The firm will be recognized for this milestone at the upcoming Kauffman Center's Annual Ensemble Members Reception.

The Kauffman Center's Ensemble program brings together Kansas City-area businesses committed to supporting the performing arts while fostering connections among the region's business and civic leaders. Ensemble members receive access to exclusive events and experiences while helping strengthen the cultural vitality of the Kansas City community.

Seigfreid Bingham's participation in the Ensemble program reflects the firm's ongoing commitment to supporting organizations that support the local arts and entertainment community. Through its membership, the firm joins other local business leaders in supporting one of Kansas City's well-known art institutions.

The firm is grateful to the Kauffman Center for its continued leadership in the arts and looks forward to celebrating this milestone alongside fellow Ensemble members. To learn more about the membership, please click here.
