Seigfreid Bingham Community Engagement and Business Development Recap

Seigfreid Bingham has been involved in the community in numerous ways since the start of the new year (2023). We are pleased to share the following firm-supported and attorney-led activities, among others:

- Ambassadors Rotary Club – Attorney Steve Kyle is an active member of this non-profit organization that supports the community through various volunteer initiatives.
- Association for Women Lawyers of Greater Kansas City (AWL-KC) Continuing Legal Education (CLE) – Attorney Shannon Cohorst Johnson presented a CLE titled, “The Latest in Employment Law: Including Wins for Mothers.” Shannon also presented two separate seminars on employment law to clients.
- Blue River Bicycle Club – Attorney Tim Fisher is involved in this group, which is firm-supported through a 2023 sponsorship.
- Clay County Fair – The firm is a sponsor of this upcoming event in Smithville, Missouri.
- Donnelly College Board of Directors – Attorney Bob Bartunek serves in this leadership role for 2022-2023, having been a member since 2005.
- Greater Kansas City Community Foundation (GKCCF) Zoom Conference – Attorney Cindy McClannahan set up a Zoom networking event focused on estate planning and charitable giving.
- Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association/Foundation (KCMBA/KCMBF) Events/Meetings – Attorney Brenda Hamilton attended the KCMBA “Board Forward” event, Board of Directors monthly meetings, Audit Committee meetings, Member happy hours, and the KCMBF 29th Annual LEAP Mardi Gras Luncheon.
- Law Firm Alliance (LFA) Spring 2023 Meeting – Attorneys Steve Kyle and Shannon Cohorst Johnson attended the LFA spring conference, a business development and marketing event that provided the opportunity to learn and network with national and global contacts in the legal field.
- “Marketing by the Rules” – Part of John Deere User Group (JDUG) Conference in Las Vegas – Attorney John Fuchs attended this event.
- The Lawyers Association of Kansas City – Young Lawyers Section (LAKC-YLS) – Members of the firm supported the organization’s pet-supply drive campaign (benefitting The Rescue Project) through donations and attendance at its charitable event at Bar K in Kansas City, Missouri. Attorney Cody Weyhofen is the Public Service Officer for LAKC-YLS and led the internal efforts related to this campaign.
- Various volunteer work – Attorney Brenda Hamilton volunteered at Harvesters, Kansas City Parks and Recreation, and the Trolley Run (benefitting the Children’s Center for the Visually Impaired).

At Seigfreid Bingham, we are built on a strong history of values, comprised of experienced attorneys who provide innovative, timely, and cost-efficient legal services that also contribute their efforts to improving the community and thought leadership initiatives.
