Seigfreid Bingham Community Engagement and Business Development Recap

Seigfreid Bingham was involved in the community in numerous ways during 2022. As we wrap up the year, we are pleased to share the following firm-supported and attorney-led activities, among others:

- Vincent Legacy Awards at Starlight Theatre – Attorney Heather Jones, board member at Starlight, attended this event.
- Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) KC– supported this business development organization for women in the commercial real estate industry through a sponsorship.
- Kauffman Center Ensemble Member – invested in the Kansas City arts community.
- University of Kansas (KU) School of Law Speaking Engagement – Attorneys Dan McClain and Curry Sexton were guest teachers at a KU employment law class.
- Cleveland Centennial and Midwest Annual Conference and Expo – supported this event through sponsorship, and attorney Mark Gilgus attended.
- North American Dealer Conference – sponsored this networking event geared toward the equipment industry.
- The Young Lawyers Section of the Lawyers Association of Kansas City's (LAKC-YLS) "Skippy & Skivvies" Drive – Attorney Jordan May, a member of LAKC-YLS, led the internal effort of collecting items to donate to the drive, benefiting Operation Breakthrough.
- Giving the Basics – Attorney Heath Hoobing served as a board member, and the firm supported this non-profit organization through a sponsorship.
- Kansas Bar Association – several firm attorneys were members of this legal organization.
- The Salvation Army – the firm hosted an internal auction event, which raised money for The Salvation Army.

At Seigfreid Bingham, we are built on a strong history of values and comprised of experienced attorneys who provide innovative, timely, and cost-efficient legal services that also contribute their efforts to improving the community and thought leadership initiatives.
