Seigfreid Bingham Names Katie Zogleman CEO, Effective October 1, 2026

Kansas City, Missouri (October 1, 2026) – Katie Zogleman has been named Seigfreid Bingham's new Chief Executive Officer (CEO), effective October 1, 2026, the law firm announced today. Zogleman succeeds Steve Kyle, who is stepping down after serving as CEO for the past 12 years. Kyle will continue his full-time law practice with the firm.

Zogleman, a shareholder since 2008, and a member of the firm's Executive Committee for the past eight years, has played a key role in guiding the firm's strategic direction while preserving the culture that has made it thrive. Throughout her career, she has been recognized for her leadership, commitment to client service, and dedication to the firm's collaborative culture.

"The firm is fortunate to have Katie step into this leadership role," said Kyle. "She has a deep understanding of our clients, our people, and the principles that have guided Seigfreid Bingham for more than 50 years. Her thoughtful leadership and commitment to our culture make her exceptionally well-positioned to lead the firm into its next chapter."

Kyle has served as CEO since October 2014, helping guide the firm through significant growth and evolution. During his tenure, Seigfreid Bingham expanded its services, strengthened its presence throughout the Midwest, and continued its commitment to delivering practical, client-focused legal counsel.

"It has been a privilege to serve as CEO and work alongside the talented attorneys and professionals who make this firm successful," Kyle said. "I am proud of what we have accomplished together and confident that Seigfreid Bingham's future is bright under Katie's leadership."

Zogleman said her focus as CEO will be building upon the firm's strong foundation while continuing to invest in its people and clients. She will continue her law practice with a focus on mergers and acquisitions and outside general counsel services for privately held businesses.

"Seigfreid Bingham's success has always been rooted in its culture of collaboration, exceptional client service, and genuine care for one another," Zogleman said. "I am honored to serve as CEO and look forward to working with our attorneys and staff as we continue to grow, adapt, and meet the evolving needs of our clients. I am also appreciative of Steve's thoughtful leadership and dedication during his tenure as CEO."
