Seigfreid Bingham Welcomes Three 2026 Summer Associates

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to welcome three exceptional law students to the firm as part of its 2026 Summer Associate Program.

This year's summer associates bring strong academic credentials and a shared commitment to the legal profession. They will have the opportunity to work alongside the firm's attorneys across a range of practice areas while gaining hands-on legal experience.

The firm's 2026 Summer Associates include:

- Alex Davis, law student at the University of Kansas School of Law
- Townshend Hurt, law student at the University of Missouri–Kansas City School of Law
- Sabrina Kopecky, law student at the University of Kansas School of Law

Throughout the summer, the associates will engage in substantive legal work, professional development programming, networking opportunities, and social events with Seigfreid Bingham attorneys, staff, and clients.

"We are excited to welcome this talented group of students to Seigfreid Bingham," said Julie Parisi, Chair of the firm's Recruiting Committee. "Our summer program is designed to provide meaningful experience and insight into our firm and the practice of law, and we look forward to working with Alex, Townshend, and Sabrina in the weeks ahead."

Seigfreid Bingham's Summer Associate Program is a longstanding part of the firm's commitment to developing future legal talent.

To learn more, please click here.