Sprague joins Seigfreid Bingham corporate practice

Seigfreid Bingham is pleased to announce that Neil Sprague has joined the firm in an Of Counsel position. His practice encompasses the areas of Real Estate, Retail and Restaurant & Hospitality, and Mergers and Acquisitions Law.

Sprague brings 35 years of corporate, real estate and general business practice experience to the firm, with extensive experience in the restaurant and franchise areas, having worked as vice president and associate general counsel for the the Applebee's and IHOP brands as part of the DineEquity legal department.

Read on to learn more about Neil Sprague here.